

Do not weaken the provisions of the Wisconsin Do Not Call List law. This law is one of the few instances in recent times when the clearly expressed desire of the people to stand up for themselves has won over powerful special interests. Do not sell us out to these corporations. Do not ignore our will. Do not change our law.